Interleaved Adams/Woodin

- 2 Adams, Edgar H. & Woodin, William H. UNITED STATES PATTERN, TRIAL, AND EXPERIMENTAL PIECES, BEING A LIST OF THE PATTERN, TRIAL AND EXPERIMENTAL PIECES WHICH HAVE BEEN ISSUED BY THE UNITED STATES MINT FROM 1792 UP TO THE PRESENT TIME. New York: American Numismatic Society American Numismatic Series No. 1, 1913. (8), 196 pages, text illustrations, interleaved throughout, occasional annotations, mainly in pencil. 24 x 16 x 3.5 cm. Original blue cloth, gilt, green floral-patterned endsheets, binding a bit worn. Very good. (500.00)
The Interleaved Clothbound Edition of the first major work on United States pattern coins. Extremely rare. The regular edition was bound in several varieties of blue cloth (suggesting it was bound in batches over time) and also in printed blue card covers (in one version, presumably a later cloth binding variant, traces of these original card covers can be discerned). Additionally, fifty copies were purportedly interleaved and bound in full morocco (though only a half dozen or so copies are currently known), and an unspecified number of interleaved copies were bound, as here, in blue cloth (some with green endsheets, others with brown). Of these, a similarly small number of examples are known to have survived. In the introduction to this landmark work, the authors give credit to the pioneering listing of patterns by R. Coulton Davis, which appeared in The Coin Collector's Journal during the last quarter of the nineteenth century. The Adams-Woodin compilation was a quantum leap over anything appearing earlier, and for half a century it remained the standard reference on this fascinating series.

(also) American Numismatic Society. COINAGE OF THE AMERICAS CONFERENCE. PROCEEDINGS NO. 12: AMERICA'S LARGE CENT. New York, 1998. xi, (1), 190 pages, illustrated. Original tan cloth. As new. (also) Crosby, Sylvester Sage. THE UNITED STATES COINAGE OF 1793.—CENTS AND HALF CENTS. DESCRIPTIONS OF THE VARIOUS DIES BEARING THAT DATE, WITH NOTES ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE MINT. Chicago: Lee, F. Hewitt, 1933 reprint. 35, (1) pages, 3 plates. Small quarto. Original printed black card covers. Fine. (50.00)
Four works on large cents.

- 4 Akerman, John Yonge. TRADESMEN'S TOKENS CURRENT IN LONDON AND ITS VICINITY BETWEEN THE YEARS 1648 AND 1672. DESCRIBED FROM THE ORIGINALS IN THE BRITISH MUSEUM, AND IN SEVERAL PRIVATE COLLECTIONS. London: John Russell Smith, 1849. Large Paper Edition. (4). viii, (v)-viii, 257, (1) pages, advertising leaf, title printed in red and black with an engraved vignette, text figures, 8 engraved plates of tokens, added leaf comprising A List of Mr. Akerman's Archaeological Works, and an 8 page octavo pamphlet listing Smith's publications bound in at the end. Quarto: 29 x 23 cm. Original brown cloth, printed paper spine label, binding a bit worn, light intermittent foxing, internally fine. (125.00)
A rare large paper copy of one of Akerman's most important numismatic works. The author, usually considered the father of the Royal Numismatic Society, wrote widely and was the most important figure in the early history of British numismatics.

Dr. Henry W. Beckwith's Würtzbach Album

61 Würtzbach, Carl. (COMPLETE SET OF MASSACHUSETTS COLONIAL SILVER MONEY). (Lee), 1937. Blank leaf, 8 printed leaves, portrait of the author, 8 fine facing photographic plates depicting both sides of eighty coins (including alpha-numeric varieties), errata slip describing number 52 tipped in on the first relevant page. Misbound, lacking the two leaves describing numbers 1-40 but with duplicates of the two leaves describing numbers 41-72. Plates complete, along with the limitation, portrait, and two foreword leaves. Oblong quarto. Original maroon leatherette folder a bit worn at extremities, a few institutional labels, internally fine apart from the absence of the two descriptive leaves of text previously noted. (500.00)

Copy No. 90, inscribed in ink to: "Dr. H. W. Beckwith, My long time collector friend, (signed) Carl Würtzbach." Despite the textual anomaly, this example of Würtzbach's famed photographic album remains quite desirable, tying together two highly rare twentieth century American coin collectors, both pre-eminent in their chosen field. Würtzbach prepared this rare and important illustrated record of his notable collection for presentation purposes. He apparently gave out few copies, however, and most were probably distributed (uninscribed, unsigned, and unnumbered) after his death. Würtzbach dedicated his work "To the lovers and collectors of the most interesting and historically the most important issues of all our colonial and United States coinage." The excellent plates are still useful for establishing pedigrees. Depicted are coins once in the collections of famous numismatists such as Finotti, McCoy, Mickle, Clay, Bushnell, Davis, Cliney, Parmelee, Whittman, Winsor, Mills, H. P. Smith, Stickney, Gischwend, Zabriski, Earle, Parsons, Belmont, Jackman, Jenks, Ten Eyck, Brand, Clapp, Ellsworth, Hall, Grauberg, Col. Green, Guttig, Newcomer, Ryder, DeWitt Smith, Newcomer, T. James Clarke, Stearns, W. S. Lincoln, and Dr. Clay. Würtzbach's collection was purchased by T. James Clarke, whose collections of large cents and Massachusetts silver were perhaps equally famous. The collection passed in turn to E. C. C. Boyd, thence to John J. Ford, Jr., and was dispersed, via the remarkable October 18, 2004 Stacks sale, to a generation whose enthusiasm and dedication confirm that coin collecting is still fun.

William Butler Yeats and Numismatics

62 Yeats, W. B., Chairman, et al. COINAGE OF SAORSTÁT ÉIREANN, 1928. Dublin: Published by the Stationery Office, To be purchased through Messrs. Eason and Son, Ltd., 40 and 41 Lower O'Connell Street, Dublin, [1928]. (81), 65, (11) pages, 11 very fine plates, mostly depicting coinage designs. Portions of the text in Gaelic, mainly written in English. 25.5 x 19 cm. Original coarsely woven tan cloth, gilt, binding just a trifle imperfect (a few minor pierce-marks in spine area, slight "bubbling" of cloth covers). Near fine. (200.00)
Rarely offered. This noted Irish poet was Chairman of "The Committee Appointed to Advise the Government on Coinage Designs" authorized by the 1926 Irish Act for Saorstát Éireann, i.e., the Irish Free State. Designs were submitted for the "silver nickel, and bronze Irish coinage" by Jerome Connor, Paul Manly, Percy Metcalfe, Carl Milles, Publio Morabucci, Albert Power, Oliver Sheppard, and Ivan Mestrovic. A foreword in Gaelic, is followed by Yeats' "What We Did (or Tried to Do, a history of Irish coinage + a summary) of the proceedings of the committee, and biographies of the artists." The appendix includes bilingual texts of the Coinage Act of 1926 and the excellent photographically-printed plates depict the various coin designs submitted, including Percy Metcalfe's "Designs as originally submitted" and "Designs as accepted for coinage." The son of a famous Irish Pre-Raphaelite painter Yeats studied at the Metropolitan School of Art in Dublin. His connection with numismatics appears to be little known in the literary world. In an explanation of the coinage committee's aims, Yeats wrote: "As the most famous and beautiful coins are the coins of the Greek Colonies, especially of those on Sicily we decided to send photographs of some of these and one coin of Carthage to our selected artists, and to ask them (as far as possible) to take them as a model. But the Greek coins had two advantages that ours could not have, one side need not balance the other, and either could be stamped in high relief, whereas ours must pitch and spin to please the gambler, and pack into rolls to please the banker."

"A man should keep his little brain attic stocked with all the furniture that he is likely to use, and the rest he can put away in the lumber room of his library, where he can get it if he wants it."

110 Bowers, Q. David. Numismatist. (BULLETIN) NO. 1. Wilkes-Barre: 203 Second National Bank Building, Sept.-Oct., 1955. (8) pages, illustrated. 23 x 15 cm. Self covered and stapled as originally issued, never folded, top blank margin of first page a trifle dusty. Fine. (500.00)

The first Bowers publication. Responding to a query concerning its origins, Bowers wrote in the June-July 2000 Rev. Con Review: "Yes, this was the first... Regarding the number of copies in existence today, I have no idea—perhaps 80 to 100." This assessment of survival is probably on the high side (if 50 copies may be more accurate) and perhaps even that is too high. Bulletin No. 1 was issued when Bowers was sixteen years old, and he noted in an earlier Rev. Con (7/1) "That certain of my early catalogues are now worth several hundred dollars each or more—amazing to me." Though of tender age, QDB was no slouch. The Bulletin is interesting to read, features desirable coins, and it contains the first of Bowers' many well-written nugget-of-numismatic-information which, over the years, have both entertained and informed his readers. The subject of "Petit" petting at the Philadelphia mint, and the vignette concludes with his grisly demise. "Petit was killed when he tried to perch on the flywheel of one of the running machines."

Four Chapman brother sales, featuring the E. J. M. Chaloner, Fletcher/Steffan/Kinney, E. Merritt Alden, and Bourquin/Johnston/Elwell collections. The Chaloner catalogue has the dubious distinction of appearing to be scarcer without (as here) than with plates.

One of the rarest Chapman sales: it has been many years since we have offered a copy for sale. In the preface, the brothers express the hope that "this our first effort at cataloguing stamps will meet with the same degree of satisfaction to Philatelists that our catalogues of coins do the Numismatists." Whether satisfaction was less than robust or, more likely, their thriving numismatic business left them little or no spare time, the brothers thereafter rarely featured stamps in their sales.

nal printed wrappers worn and loose, contents and covers damp-stained. (also) "DEEDS BEFORE WORDS." ANNUAL DIRECTORY OF THE COMMERCIAL COUNCIL AND CHAPTER OF LIFE, OF EASTMAN NATIONAL BUSINESS COLLEGE, POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y. Poughkeepsie: Dutchess Farmer Job Printing Office, 1870. 24 pages. 22.5 x 14.5 cm. Self-covered and sewn, apparently as issued, contents a bit dampstained, top blank outer corner of later leaves chewed. (50.00)

The "Merchant's Guide" is a detailed student primer on "carrying into practice your Theoretical knowledge" in the college's various commercial and financial enterprises and transactions, often mentioning the utilization of Eastman's "College Currency" in these endeavors. The second publication lists over 1,500 members of the Commercial Council, i.e., student body. An unabashed laissez-faire capitalist, Harvey Gridley Eastman built his fortune, after a false start or two, by providing for "the proper (commercial) education of young men and women." By the mid-1860s he was instructing up to 1,700 students at a time and spending $60,000 per year advertising the merits of his establishment. The first publication present here would appear to be of interest to collectors of business college currency. Both appear to be rare.

Apparently extracted from E. B. O'Callaghan's monumental four volume The Documentary History of the State of New-York, published in Albany between 1849 and 1851. The first plate depicts the MEDAL TO COMMEMORATE THE TRIUMPH OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE (and a 1783 Washington UNITE STATES cent); the second plate illustrates four of the ROSA AMERICANA COINS; and the final plate depicts five NEW-YORK TOKENS. The three pages of descriptive text accompanying these early plates, possibly written by Hickcox, are not present here.

Attinelli page 51, with the following amusing if devastating observation: "The perspicuity of this catalogue may be readily understood from the following sentence, which appears on the last page. 'Note. A full explanation will be given of the whole list, as every coin is named in manuscript list but confused in the abridgement for catalogue. I. I.'" Apparently quite scarce.

Philadelphia, May 29, 1916. Blank leaf, half-tone frontispiece plate, vi, 61, (1), (4) pages, blank leaf, 827 lots, prices realized list. Quarto: 32 x 25 cm. From the November 28, 1995 Bowers and Merena sale, lot 3271, unsold; ex November 10, 1997 Money Tree sale, lot 241. An exceptional sale, featuring American colonial coins with many great rarities and an impressive array of United States large cents in incredibly fine condition. A large, untrimmed copy. Scarce thus. The upper cover of the case is lettered in gilt: CLARENCE BEMENT/SALE/ONE PLATE/UNCUT & UNTRIMMED/ONE OF FIVE KNOWN/H. CHAPMAN/1916. The given quantity "known" is misleading and the footnote in the 1995 Bowers and Merena catalogue diplomatically provides context: "The second of five unbound and uncut copies from the Henry Chapman Estate disbursed in the 1970 Harmer Rooke Million Dollar Sale." The Money Tree catalogue aptly observes: "The book probably cost more than this lot will realize." Perhaps best described as a Champa Folly.

The 1907 and 1938 A. N. A. Conventions were both held in Columbus, Ohio. The photograph offered here was prepared to be given out at the latter convention, with the "Compliments of Horace M. Grant." Of Farran Zerbe, who was elected President at the 1907 convention, Grant notes with faint praise: "I think he is a much better looking man today than he was at the time."

575 Andrews, Frank D. AN ARRANGEMENT OF UNITED STATES COPPER CENTS, 1816-1857, FOR THE ASSISTANCE OF COLLECTORS. Vineland, 1883. Second Edition. 42, (2) pages. 16.5 x 17.7 cm. Original printed overlapping gray wrappers. Near new. Housed within clear plastic wrappers in a handsome navy blue clamshell book box crafted by Alan Grace, spine with four raised bands, decorated in gilt and ruled in blind, two gray leather spine labels lettered in gilt. As new. (500.00)

An ink note present here records the following provenance: "Andrews to Deats to Lionel Ruddick to B & M Sussex Sale...to Champa/Champa III...to KJ [Kenneth M L] [owe] to M[yron] X[enos]." In the September 10, 1995 Bowers and Merena sale, the example at hand is described as follows: "The finest condition example of the eight copies preserved by Hiram Deats and sold by Bowers & Merena in 1990." Frank Dewette Andrews made the first attempt to comprehensively cover the later dates, and this second edition remained the standard work until superseded in 1944 by Newcomb. James Macallister thought highly of Andrews calling him "a keen student, with a remarkable memory" and he noted that "I am inclined to believe that he saw every Cent he listed." According to Sheldon, Andrews "remarkably thorough little monograph" was the fruit of research spanning twenty years. In the preface, the author describes his work as "the result of careful observation" and opines "Perhaps it would not be advisable to spend time that could be better employed on a subject of so little practical importance: but as a recreation from tasks more severe; as a means of training the eye to observe minor differences and variations; and of assistance to the mind in times of mental depression, the Numismatist will find it of much value."

576 Beistle, M(artin) L(uther). A REGISTER OF HALF DOLLAR DIE VARIETIES AND SUB-VARIETIES, BEING A DESCRIPTION OF EACH DIE VARIETY USED IN THE COINAGE OF UNITED STATES HALF DOLLARS AS FAR AS THE ISSUES ARE KNOWN, COVERING THE UNITED STATES MINT AT PHILADELPHIA, AND BRANCHES AT NEW ORLEANS, SAN FRANCISCO, CARSON CITY AND DENVER. Shippensburg, 1929. xxxiii, (1), 261, (1) pages, frontispiece portrait of the author, autographed in ink, portrait plate of David Proskay, primer chart, 7 fine photographic plates. Original full brown flexible morocco, gilt, all page edges gilt, interleaved, spine and corners worn, else fine. (125.00)

No. 48 of only 135 DE LUXE interleaved copies issued with photographic plates. Inscribed in ink on front flyleaf: "Q D(avid) B(owers)"; ex November 18, 1995 Money Tree sale. Clain-Stefanelli 12243. Though scarce and desirable now, Deluxe Beistles were not immediate numismatic bestsellers. In 1943, at the November 9-10 Parke-Bernet sale including Colonel E. H. R. Green's numismatic library, four lots of 25 copies each were offered, along with 189 copies of the regular edition. Abe Kosoff apparently purchased one or more of the bulk lots at the sale and was retailing deluxe Beistles well into the 1960s. Perhaps the example at hand was one of these; if so, it appears that "QDB" used it regularly.

577 Hall, William R. WILLIAM R. HALL NUMISMATIC LIBRARY MAIL AUCTION. San Francisco, July 19, 1976. 9 sheets of 8.5 x 11 inch duplicated typescript, the first 8 printed on both sides, 611 lots, annotated throughout. Stapled together at upper left corner as issued. (50.00)

Scarce. A good working library, put together by an active dealer of the day. An original 1875 Crosby is included, with "Many signatures on overleaf. Leather bound. An astounding (sic specimen)." Some of the annotations are quite interesting, and were apparently written by someone who examined the lots. Included are numerous bids, what appear to be prices realized for a number of key lots (for example, Crosby of "285"), notes on condition and content, and lots on which there were "no bids."

"...Mehl would not devote as much space to them for 20% - most of these kid cataloguers prefer to sell their own stuff...Raymond is a chump for preferring the Canadian coins to yours that I offered him...remember he's only 21..."

578 [American Numismatic Correspondence, Etc.] A MOST INTERESTING ASSEMBLAGE OF THIRTY-ONE NINETEENTH AND TWENTIETH CENTURY LETTERS, INVOICES, AND OTHER ITEMS. Housed in a black leatherette three-ring binder with thirty-three clear plastic pockets. (500.00)

Included are: 1) a handwritten March 5, 1908 letter from S. S. Heald to John E. Jones on three sheets, mainly concerning a consignment of large cents and other coins catalogued for Jones by Heald for inclusion in a B. Max Mehl auction (a few excerpts follow - "My idea was that it was best to concentrate efforts on the large cents, and in the ordinary way Mehl would not devote as much space to them for 20% - most of these kid cataloguers prefer to sell their own stuff. Raymond is a chump for preferring the Canadian coins to yours that I offered him. Remember he's only 21, and the grass in the next field always looks greener to the cow. I think Mehl - in expectation of my help - will treat us fairly..."); 2) a handwritten March 19, 1908 letter from Heald to Jones ("In private letter just to hand from Mehl he gives prices realized for some of the most valuable cents...I trust to heaven none of these suckers will return these to Max. I wish I had some darned cents to send him..."); 3) a handwritten April 7, 1908 letter from Heald to Jones ("all the high priced cents have stuck - none come back but a few of the cheaper lots. I consider sale on the whole - a success..."); 4) a printed 1895 H. E. Deats subscription receipt; 5) an interesting handwritten Feb. 17, 1926 letter from Clarence H. Marcuson to John E. Jones concerning his family's decision to sell his father Mose Marcuson's coin collection in a B. Max Mehl auction; 6) a handwritten note from Henry H. Holland, written as "Secretary of the N. E. Numismatic & Archaeological Society," thanking the recipient (Strobridge or Woodward?) for "sending a list of the errors in the price list of the Clay sale"; 7) an 1895 letter written from London to Henry Chapman ("We sympathised very much with you & Hudson in your anxiety about Harry and now we rejoice with you that he is restored to health

The Mysterious Dr. Ken L. Rosenbaum

583 Champa, Armand & Rosenbaum, Dr. Ken L. CORRESPONDENCE WITH SANFORD DURST. Louisville & New York, circa 1979-1986. Various invoices, letters, drafts, and handwritten notes. Good to very fine. (100.00)

An interesting assemblage, as follows: 1) a January 15, 1979 letter from Durst to Champa, requesting advance payment ("since we have not done business in the past") and discussing how to ship lots from Durst's Mail Bid Sale No. 1 of numismatic literature, with handwritten notes on the back by Champa; 2) a handwritten draft on four sheets (apparently written by Kay Champa) of a 1979 letter from Champa to Durst, reading in part: "Your books finally arrived today. I wish to return the following lots for reasons I will describe later in this letter. Lot Nos. 11, 24, 29, 115, 247, 329, 401, 402, 406, 492, 493, 494, 496, 511, 519, 521, 533, 947, and 803, 34, 489. The above books were not as described... Lot No. 11 you claim as an original. It's not, it's a reprint. Lot No. 24 pg. No. 5 is completely torn out... Lot 29... is a reprint... Lot 496 you mention that the cover is slightly loose but intact, this book is a complete rag... And finally—Lot 803—your rare 1715 text in old German, you state original parchment in excellent condition. I bid $800 for this book... [it] is completely separated & torn away at spine. The inside cover has been scotch taped... The top of the book is completely stained and soiled. Your description of this book is terrible... After talking with you on the phone the other day, I have a strange feeling you are going to come after me with both barrels and you will make it very difficult for us to come to an agreement..."; 3) two handwritten sheets of notes in Champa's hand also describing details in some of the lots previously mentioned; 4) a handwritten draft (apparently written by Kay Champa) of a June 21, 1979 letter from Champa to Durst, reading in part: "Have your letter of June 13 and further correspondence between us seems to be a waste of time. The letter that I wrote you around the first of April I mentioned to you that I was disappointed with many of the lots in your first sale. Your descriptions were not what I consider accurate. In fact, they were misleading... You may do one of two things. Mark my bill paid in full or the other option... for me to return the lots I disagreed with..."; 5) a typewritten two page June 26, 1979 letter, signed Sandy, from Durst to Champa, reading in part: "It is very clear to me that your delays and refusal to answer me by telephone as agreed, or writing if necessary so we could work out any complaint which you have had, was specifically intended to produce the desired results on your part of 'chiseling' on the price of the lots which you purchased. I will not accept the lots back at this late stage nor will I eliminate your bill... If I do not receive a check for the full amount due, namely $899.00, within a week, I will have no choice but to proceed to collect that sum... I will furthermore make complaints to the ANA and other organizations... In addition of course, we will not accept bids from you in the future..."; 6) a September 25, 1979, 1979 NOTE-O-GRAM from Durst to Champa, beginning: "You may be the world's most impatient man"; 7) page 2 of an 8/28/79 invoice totaling $436.19 from Durst to Ken Rosenbaum for inexpensive lots sold in amounts from $6.00 to $7.00; an 8/28/79 invoice totaling $2,053.22 from Durst to Champa; 8) the famous 9/26/79 invoice from Durst to Champa headed RESALE ARRANGED/LOTS FROM MAIL BID SALE #2, totaling $5,028.00, $4800.00 of which was for "Lots 1-64"; 9) an 10/9/80 three page invoice totaling $569.30 from Durst to Dr. Ken L. Rosenbaum; 10) a handwritten 12/7/80 letter to Mr. Durst from Dr. Ken L. Rosenbaum, concerning three lots missing from Durst's sale 4; 11) a 2/11/81 invoice from Durst to Rosenbaum; 12) a two page 5/28/81 invoice from Durst to Rosenbaum totaling $1434.67; 13) a 6/30/81 invoice from Durst to Rosenbaum; 14) a two page 12/29/81 invoice from Durst to Rosenbaum totaling $2,772.90; and 15) a handwritten note in Champa's hand reading: "Hey Sandy—How can you list your reprints in auctions then charge another 10% Buyers Fee's/We are not stupid/Durst Sale #12/56% of successful bidders bid $6 or less on 645 lots/23% of your lots Received no Bids- or 271 n.b." Dr. Ken Rosenbaum, whose mailing address was P. O. Box 533, Valley Station, Kentucky, was, of course, a fictitious persona employed by Armand Champa in certain transactions with Sanford Durst.

A unique and most interesting volume, linking together two major Victorian coin collectors. The main work is inscribed in ink at head of title: "George Wakeford, from his friend Richard A. Hoblyn, 3 Mar. 1876." Henfrey's List is inscribed in ink at head of title: "This manuscript was sent me by Mr. Henfrey in August, 1871; and is inserted here [preceding the text on the coins and coinage of Charles II], as not out of place. R. H." Hoblyn's annotations, mainly written on the interleaves, include corrections, notes on rarity, a great many interesting observations, auction sale results, etc. Also present are auction results of "G. W.'s" sale, presumably entered by Wakeford. One of the annotations in Henfrey's List is not in Hoblyn's hand (perhaps Henfrey's?) and comprises an addition: "7.* [Silver] Half-crown; similar to no. 6..."

Schaeferiani, 1801. Two parts complete, bound in one volume. (2), 278; xx, (2), (279)-558 pages. 21 x 12.5 cm. Nicely bound in period style in dark blue three-quarter cloth and boards, spine ruled and lettered in gilt. Very fine. (450.00)
Though almost entirely based on the 1760 numismatic bibliography compiled by J. C. Hirsch and not by any means complete, Lipsius has long stood as the best numismatic bibliography of early printed numismatic books. Only it covers the last four decades of the eighteenth century and, combined with Leitzmann, it remains the only comprehensive work on the topic from the birth of numismatic books at the beginning of the sixteenth century to 1806. The work is surprisingly scarce and is seldom obtainable.
